New York State Disclosure Form for Buyer and Seller

THIS IS NOT A CONTRACT

New York State law requires real estate licensees who are acting as agents of buyers or sellers of property to advise the potential buyers or sellers with whom they work of the nature of their agency relationship and the rights and obligations it creates. This disclosure will help you to make informed choices about your relationship with the real estate broker and its sales agents.

Throughout the transaction you may receive more than one disclosure form. The law may require each agent assisting in the transaction to present you with this disclosure form. A real estate agent is a person qualified to advise about real estate.

If you need legal, tax or other advice, consult with a professional in that field.

Disclosure Regarding Real Estate Agency Relationships

Seller's Agent

A seller's agent is an agent who is engaged by a seller to represent the seller's interests. The seller's agent does this by securing a buyer for the seller's home at a price and on terms acceptable to the seller. A seller's agent has, without limitation, the following fiduciary duties to the seller: reasonable care, undivided loyalty, confidentiality, full disclosure, obedience and duty to account. A seller's agent does not represent the interests of the buyer. The obligations of a seller's agent are also subject to any specific provisions set forth in an agreement between the agent and the seller. In dealings with the buyer, a seller's agent should (a) exercise reasonable skill and care in performance of the agent's duties; (b) deal honestly, fairly and in good faith; and (c) disclose all facts known to the agent materially affecting the value or desirability of property, except as otherwise provided by law.

Buyer's Agent

A buyer's agent is an agent who is engaged by a buyer to represent the buyer's interest. The buyer's agent does this by negotiating the purchase of a home at a price and on terms acceptable to the buyer. A buyer's agent has, without limitation, the following fiduciary duties to the buyer: reasonable care, undivided loyalty, confidentiality, full disclosure, obedience and duty to account. A buyer's agent does not represent the interest of the seller. The obligations of a buyer's agent are also subject to any specific provisions set forth in an agreement between the agent and the buyer. In dealings with the seller, a buyer's agent should (a) exercise reasonable skill and care in performance of the agent's duties; (b) deal honestly, fairly and in good faith; and (c) disclose all facts known to the agent materially affecting the buyer's ability and/or willingness to perform a contract to acquire seller's property that are not consistent with the agent's fiduciary duties to the buyer.

Broker's Agents

A broker's agent is an agent that cooperates or is engaged by a listing agent or a buyer's agent (but does not work for the same firm as the listing agent or buyer's agent) to assist the listing agent or buyer's agent in locating a property to sell or buy, respectively, for the listing agent's seller or the buyer agent's buyer. The broker's agent does not have a direct relationship with the buyer or seller and the buyer or seller cannot provide instructions or direction directly to the broker's agent. The buyer and the seller therefore do not have vicarious liability for the acts of the broker's agent. The listing agent or buyer's agent do provide direction and instruction to the broker's agent and therefore the listing agent or buyer's agent will have liability for the acts of the broker's agent.

Dual Agent

A real estate broker may represent both the buyer and the seller if both the buyer and seller give their informed consent in writing. In such a dual agency situation, the agent will not be able to provide the full range of fiduciary duties to the buyer and seller. The obligations of an agent are also subject to any specific provisions set forth in an agreement between the agent, and the buyer and seller. An agent acting as a dual agent must explain carefully to both the buyer and seller that the agent is acting for the other party as well. The agent should also explain the possible effects of dual representation, including that by consenting to the dual agency relationship the buyer and seller are giving up their right to undivided loyalty. A buyer or seller should carefully consider the possible consequences of a dual agency relationship before agreeing to such representation. A seller or buyer may provide advance informed consent to dual agency by indicating the same on this form.

Dual Agent with Designated Sales Agents

If the buyer and seller provide their informed consent in writing, the principals and the real estate broker who represents both parties as a dual agent may designate a sales agent to represent the buyer and another sales agent to represent the seller. A sales agent works under the supervision of the real estate broker. With the informed consent of the buyer and the seller in writing, the designated sales agent for the buyer will function as the buyer's agent representing the interests of and advocating on behalf of the buyer and the designated sales agent for the seller will function as the seller's agent representing the interests of and advocating on behalf of the seller in the negotiations between the buyer and seller. A designated sales agent cannot provide the full range of fiduciary duties to the landlord or tenant. A designated sales agent cannot provide full range of fiduciary duties to the buyer or seller. The designated sales agent must explain that like the dual agent under whose supervision they function, they cannot provide undivided loyalty. A buyer or seller should carefully consider the possible consequences of a dual agency relationship with designated sales agents before agreeing to such representation. A seller or buyer provide advance informed consent to dual agency with designated sales agents by indicating the same on this form.

- Negotiate discriminatory terms of sale, rental or lease, such as stating a different price because of race, national origin or other protected characteristic.
- Discriminate based on any protected characteristic because it is the preference of a seller or landlord.
- Discriminate by “steering” which occurs when a real estate professional guides prospective buyers or renters towards or away from certain neighborhoods, locations or buildings, based on any protected characteristic.
- Discriminate by “blockbusting” which occurs when a real estate professional represents that a change has occurred or may occur in future in the composition of a block, neighborhood or area, with respect to any protected characteristics, and that the change will lead to undesirable consequences for that area, such as lower property values, increase in crime, or decline in the quality of schools.
- Discriminate by pressuring a client or employee to violate the Law.
- Express any discrimination because of any protected characteristic by any statement, publication, advertisement, application, inquiry or any Fair Housing Law record.

FLOOD INSURANCE DISCLOSURE FORM

Your mortgage lender (may) (will) require you to purchase flood insurance in connection with your purchase of this property. The National Flood Insurance Program provides for the availability of flood insurance and establishes flood insurance policy premiums based on the risk of flooding in the area where properties are located. Recent changes to federal law (The Biggert - Waters Flood Insurance Reform Act of 2012 and the Homeowner Flood Insurance Affordability Act of 2014, in particular) will result in changes to flood insurance prior to or at the time of sale of the property. As a result, purchasers of property should not rely on the premiums paid for flood insurance on this property previously as an indication of the premiums that will apply after completion of the purchase.

In considering purchase of this property you should consult with one or more carriers of flood insurance for a better understanding of flood insurance coverage, current and anticipated future flood insurance premiums, whether the prior owner's policy may be assumed by a subsequent purchaser of the property, and other matters related to the purchase of flood insurance for the property. You may also wish to contact the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) for more information about flood insurance as it relates to this property.

*An important note regarding electronic funds transfers: DO NOT ACCEPT NEW, REVISED, OR ALTERED WIRE INSTRUCTIONS WITHOUT VOICE CALL VERIFICATION TO A KNOWN TELEPHONE NUMBER. Alerts of fraudulent email messages containing fraudulent wire instructions have occurred.

CONSUMER WIRE FRAUD ADVISORY

While conducting business and communicating electronically has become a matter of convenience, and in most cases a reality in nearly all aspects of our lives, it has also provided hackers/criminals new opportunities for their criminal activity. In the course of your real estate transaction, you may receive fraudulent/deceptive wiring instructions via email, fax, text, and/or social media. These communications are becoming regular and likely, while having the appearance of being authentic, are actually counterfeit requests for information directing consumers to input private banking information on a fake website or email. Please note that Keller Williams will not send instructions to wire funds beyond advising you to contact your Title Manager / Closing Attorney.

WARNING: When wiring funds, never rely exclusively on any electronic means of communication. Call the Title Agent / Closing Attorney at a number that you obtained on your own (i.e., sales contract, their website, etc.). Do not use a phone number that is obtained from any electronic communication. *INITIALS: _____

BUYERS: Keller Williams recommends that if you receive wiring instructions, supposedly from a settlement/title company, lender, attorney, or any other entity, verify the authenticity of the instructions prior to initiating any transfer of funds.

- Contact your Title Manager / Closing Attorney at the phone number you received at the beginning of your transaction. NEVER WIRE FUNDS PRIOR TO CALLING YOUR TITLE MANAGER / CLOSING ATTORNEY TO CONFIRM.
- Do not use any phone numbers provided to you in emailed wire transfer instructions. ONLY USE A KNOWN AND CONFIRMED PHONE NUMBER FOR YOUR TITLE MANAGER / CLOSING ATTORNEY.
- Orally confirm, with your Title Manager / Closing Attorney, that the wire transfer instruction is legitimate and confirm the bank routing number, account numbers, and other codes before transferring the funds.
- Avoid sending any personal information via electronic transmission. Provide such information in person or over the phone directly to the Title Manager / Closing Attorney.
- It is recommended that you take steps to secure your information (i.e., create strong passwords, only use secure Wi-Fi, do not use free services, etc.).

SELLERS: Keller Williams recommends that if you send wiring instructions of any kind (i.e., for the receipt of your proceeds) via electronic means, you must call immediately and verify that the correct instructions were received by the Title Manager / Closing Attorney. Also, it is important to confirm with the Title Manager / Closing Attorney that the wire instructions are not to be substituted without verbal consent.

Additionally: Keller Williams, Closing Attorneys, or Title Managers may request Cashier's Checks only on escrows/deposits/rents after a fully executed contract/agreement of sale or lease. Your real estate agent can help you find out what is required for deposits and closings.

If you believe that you have received fraudulent wire instructions, immediately notify your bank, the Title Manager / Closing Attorney, and your real estate agent. The sources below, as well as others, can also provide information:
